Ordinary section

First resolution – Review and approval of the parent company financial statements for the financial year ending December 31, 2010

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for ordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the reports of the Board of Directors and the Statutory Auditors, as well as the parent company financial statements that were presented to it by the Board of Directors,

- approves the Company's financial statements for the financial year ending December 31, 2010 such as they have been presented by the Board of Directors as well as the results effected by these statements and summarized in these reports, and
- as a result, give the members of the Board of Directors without reserve a full release as to the performance of their missions during the past financial year.

Second resolution – Review and approval of the consolidated financial statements for the financial year ending December 31, 2010

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for ordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the reports of the Board of Directors and the Statutory Auditors, as well as the Company's consolidated financial statements that were presented to it by the Board of Directors, approves the Company's consolidated financial statements for the financial year ending December 31, 2010 such as they have been presented by the Board of Directors as well as the operations resulting from these statements and summarized in these reports.

Third resolution – Allocation of net income

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for ordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and upon its proposal, resolves to allocate the net loss for the financial year ending December 31, 2010 amounting to -€89,828,723 on the negative amount of the "Carry Forward" account that thus equals -€219,303,290.

In accordance with the law, the General Meeting acknowledges that no distribution of dividends has been made over the last three years.

Fourth resolution – Approval of the regulated agreements

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for ordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the Statutory Auditors' special report on the agreements referenced in articles L.225-38 and in accordance with the French Commercial Code, takes note of the terms in said report and approves the agreements to which it makes reference.

Fifth resolution – Authorization to grant the Board of Directors the ability to buy, hold, or to transfer shares of the Company

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for ordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors, and pursuant to the terms of articles L.225-209 and following of the French Code of Commerce,

- authorizes the Board of Directors, with authority to delegate, to proceed with the purchase by the Company of its own shares in order to, by descending order of priority:
 - a. trade the Company's share on the market through a liquidity contract,
 - b. attribute in favor of Company employees and/or managers or those of its subsidiaries, under the conditions and terms set by the law, and more precisely within the framework of sharing the benefits of the Company's growth, stock options, free shares or corporate savings plan,
 - c. retain them and hand them over a set period as payment or as an exchange in the context of external growth transactions,
 - d. hand them over during the exercise of the rights related to securities representative of debt obligations, reimbursement, exercise or exchange that give immediate or future rights to the allocation of Company shares,
 - e. cancel them entirely or partially with the goal of optimizing the cash management, the return on equity and net income, in the context of a reduction of share capital approved or authorized by the General Meeting, and
 - f. more generally, conduct any other transaction allowed by the regulations in effect.
- resolves that the purchase of Company shares by virtue of the present authorization will only involve a number of shares representing a maximum of 10% of the number of shares that constitute the Company's share capital at any given time,
- resolves that the maximum unit purchase price cannot exceed €7 and that the maximum amount of funds the Company can spend on these acquisitions cannot exceed €200,000,000
- delegates to the Board of Directors the authority to adjust these prices and amount in order to take into consideration the impact of potential transactions on the share value; in particular in a case of a transaction related to the share capital and a case of a share split or consolidation, an increase by capitalization of reserves, premiums or profits and the allocation of free shares, this unit price and this maximum amount will be adjusted by a multiplier equal to the ratio between the number of shares that constitute the share capital before the transaction and the number after the transaction,
- resolves that the acquisition, sale and transfer of these shares may be effected and paid by all means on and off the market by private contract and in particular by way of an acquisition or sale in blocks, the use of derivative financial instruments or warrants and, more generally, securities giving right to Company shares, or in the context of an offer to the public, at the times the Board of Directors will decide,
- resolves that in the case of a public offer of Company shares, the Company may pursue the execution of its buyback program in the conditions provided by the applicable laws and regulations,

- as a result, grants all powers to the Board of Directors, with the authority to delegate to any person legally authorized, to conduct this buyback program and, in particular, to make all stock market orders, enter into all agreements for the registration of share purchases and sales, fulfill all formalities, and in general, do all that is required.

The present authorization, which immediately terminates and replaces that approved by the seventh resolution of the General Meeting of June 1st, 2010 and is valid for a period of eighteen (18) months from the date of the present meeting.

Extraordinary part

Sixth resolution – Delegation of competence to the Board of Directors for the purpose of deciding on the issue of shares and securities granting a right to hold a stake in the share capital or granting the right to assignment of debt securities, maintaining the shareholders' preferential subscription right

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the terms of Articles L.225-129 and following, L.225-132, L.225-134, L.228-91 to L. 228-97 of the French Code of Commerce:

- To delegate competence to the Board of Directors, with the right to sub-delegate, for the purpose of deciding, at its own discretion, in one or several stages, in the proportion and at the times it may deem fit, both in France and abroad and/or in the international market, in euros, in foreign currency or any monetary unit determined by reference to several currencies, to issue the company's shares or securities, issued at a price or free of charge (i) to assign a stake by any means, immediately and/or over a set period, in the company's share capital or (ii) to grant the right for the assignment of debt securities, the subscription of which may be carried out either in cash or by offsetting debts, but this delegation may not grant a right to issue preferential shares and securities that grant a right, by any means, immediately and/or over a set period, to preferential shares.
- To delegate competence to the Board of Directors, with the right to sub-delegate, for the purpose of adopting a decision to issue securities that grant a right to hold a stake in a company when the Company directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the share capital thereof or a company that directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the Company's share capital, being understood that these issues of securities must have been authorized by the company in which the rights will be exercised,
- To decide that the maximum nominal amount of the capital increases that may be agreed, immediately and/or over a set period, by virtue of the delegation hereby may not exceed €100 million or its counter-value in any other authorized currency, being specified that (i) this ceiling will be increased, if need be, by the amount of the capital increases resulting from the adjustments that may be made, pursuant to the law and, if need be, the applicable contractual clauses, to protect the rights of the holders of securities or other rights granted to hold a stake in the Company's share capital, and (ii) it is charged to the overall ceiling as this is determined according to the terms and conditions specified in resolution nineteen,
- To decide that the nominal amount of the debt securities granting a right to hold a stake in the Company's share capital (or in a company when the Company directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the share capital thereof or a company that directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the Company's share capital), that could be issued by virtue of the delegation hereby may not exceed €200 million or its counter-value in any other authorized currency,
- To decide that the shareholders may exercise their preferential subscription right by absolute title, according to the terms and conditions set forth by law. In addition, the Board of Directors shall be authorized to grant the shareholders the right to subscribe to a number of securities, by non-absolute title, higher than that they could subscribe to by absolute title, in proportion to the subscription rights they hold and up to the limit of their request,
- To decide that if the subscriptions by absolute title, and, if need be, by non-absolute title, do not cover the whole of an issue of ordinary shares or securities granting a right to hold a stake in a company, the Board of Directors may, in the order it deems fit, exercise the rights included in article L.225-134 of the French

Commercial Code, or only some of them, and, in particular, to offer the public all or part of the unsubscribed shares,

- To take record that this delegation fully lawfully implies, to the benefit of the holders of the securities issued granting a right to hold a stake in the Company, the shareholders must waive their preferential subscription rights to the shares such securities could entitle them to acquire,
- To decide that the issue price of the shares or securities to be issued within the scope of the resolution hereby will at least be equivalent to the minimum amount authorized by the law in force at the time of the issue,
- To decide (i) that the securities issued in this manner may consist of debt securities and, in particular, bonds or similar or related securities, or even allow the issues as interim securities and (ii) that they may be specifically issued in the form of subordinated securities or not, for a fixed term or not,
- To decide that the Board of Directors shall be delegated competence, with a right to sub-delegate, to enforce the resolution hereby and in particular:
 - a. to determine the dates and terms for any issue and the methods and features for the securities to be created, approve the prices, with or without a premium, and the terms and conditions for the issues, to determine the amount to be issued, decide on the date the securities to be issued benefit from dividend rights even retroactively, determine the way to release the ordinary shares or other securities issued and, if need be, the methods for the securities granting a right to free allocation of a stake in a company, the terms and conditions in which these securities will grant a stake in the Company's share capital and, if need be, to stipulate the terms and conditions for their purchase on the stock market and their possible redemption and the possibility of suspending the rights being exercised related to the securities to be issued,
 - b. to decide, when the securities issued consist of or will be associated with debt securities, whether they are subordinated or not, determine their interest rate and the terms for paying the interest, their term, the fixed or variable reimbursement price, with or without premium, the systems for redemption and the terms and conditions in which these securities will grant a right to obtain the shares of the Company or a company when the Company directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the share capital thereof or a company that directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the Company's share capital,
 - c. If need be, not to take into account the treasury shares to determine the preferential rights related to the other shares,
 - d. If need be, to freely decide on the assignment of the fractions in the case of an odd number,
 - e. To make any charges to the share premium or premiums and, in particular, for the expenses incurred to carry out the issues, charging the capital increase expenses to the amount of the premiums that are related thereto and to withdraw the required amount from this sum to set up the legal reserve,
 - f. In more general terms, to take all steps, conclude any agreements and carry out all the formalities in order to achieve that the securities are duly issued and admitted for trading and brokerage service, record the capital increase or increases and therefore amend the Company's By-laws.

This delegation shall be valid for a term of 26 months from the date this General Meeting is held.

Seventh resolution – Delegation of competence to the Board of Directors for the purpose of deciding on the issue of shares and securities granting a right to hold a stake in the share capital or granting the right to assignment of debt securities within the scope of public offers, eliminating the shareholders' preferential subscription right

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the terms of Articles L.225-129 and following, L.225-135, L.225-136, L.228-91 to L. 228-97 of the French Code of Commerce:

- To delegate competence to the Board of Directors, with the right to sub-delegate, for the purpose of deciding, at its own discretion, in one or several stages, in the proportion and at the times it may deem fit, both in France and abroad and/or in the international market, in euros, in foreign currency or any monetary unit determined by reference to several currencies, to issue the company's shares or securities by means of public offers, with no preferential subscription right, issued at a price or free of charge (i) to assign a stake by any means, immediately and/or over a set period, in the Company's share capital or (ii) to grant the right for the assignment of debt securities, the subscription of which may be carried out either in cash or by offsetting debts, but this delegation may not grant a right to issue preferential shares and securities that grant a right, by any means, immediately and/or over a set period, to preferential shares.
- To delegate competence to the Board of Directors, with the right to sub-delegate, for the purpose of adopting a decision to issue securities that, by means of public offers, grant a right to hold a stake in a company when the Company directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the share capital thereof or a company that directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the Company's share capital, being understood that these issues of securities must have been authorized by the company in which the rights will be exercised,
- To decide that the maximum nominal amount of the capital increases that may be agreed, immediately and/or over a set period, by virtue of the delegation hereby may not exceed €100 million or its counter-value in any other authorized currency, being specified that (i) this ceiling will be increased, if need be, by the amount of the capital increases resulting from the adjustments that may be made, pursuant to the law and, if need be, the applicable contractual clauses, to protect the rights of the holders of securities or other rights granting a stake in the Company's share capital, and (ii) it is charged to the overall ceiling as this is determined according to the terms and conditions specified in resolution nineteen,
- To decide that the nominal amount of the debt securities granting a right to hold a stake in the Company's share capital (or in a company when the Company directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the share capital thereof or a company that directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the Company's share capital), that could be issued by virtue of the delegation hereby may not exceed €200 million or its counter-value in any other authorized currency,
- To decide to eliminate the shareholders' preferential subscription right for the securities, subject to the resolution hereby, to be issued by means of a public offer and to delegate competence to the Board of Directors to determine if a term of priority must be granted to the shareholders by absolute or non-absolute title, during the term and according to the conditions determined thereby, for all or part of the issue within the scope of the resolution hereby, which must be exercised in proportion to the number of shares each shareholder owns by applying the legal and regulatory provisions,
- To decide that if the subscriptions do not cover the whole of an issue, the Board of Directors may, in the order it deems fit, exercise the rights included in article L.225-134 of the French Commercial Code, or only some of them, and, in particular, to offer the public all or part of the unsubscribed shares,
- To take record that this delegation fully lawfully implies, to the benefit of the holders of the securities granting a right to hold a stake in the Company, the shareholders must waive their preferential subscription rights to the shares such securities could entitle them to acquire,
- To decide that the issue price of the shares or securities to be issued within the scope of the resolution hereby will at least be equivalent to the minimum amount authorized by the law in force at the time of the issue,
- To decide (i) that the securities issued in this manner may consist of debt securities and, in particular, bonds or similar or related securities, or even allow the issues as interim securities and (ii) that they may be specifically issued in the form of subordinated securities or not, for a fixed term or not,
- To decide that the Board of Directors shall be delegated all the competence, with a right to sub-delegate, to enforce the resolution hereby and in particular:
 - a. to determine the dates and terms for any issue and the methods and features for the securities to be created, approve the prices, with or without a premium, and the terms and conditions for the issues, to determine the amount to be issued, decide on the date the securities to be issued benefit from

dividend rights even retroactively, determine the way to release the ordinary shares or other securities issued and, if need be, the methods for the securities granting a right to free allocation of a stake in a company, the terms and conditions in which these securities will grant a stake in the Company's share capital and, if need be, to stipulate the terms and conditions for their purchase on the stock market and their possible redemption and the possibility of suspending the rights being exercised related to the securities to be issued,

- b. to decide, when the securities issued consist of or will be associated with debt securities, whether they are subordinated or not, determine their interest rate and the terms for paying the interest, their term, the fixed or variable reimbursement price, with or without premium, the systems for redemption and the terms and conditions in which these securities will grant a right to the shares of the Company (or a company when the Company directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the share capital thereof or a company that directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the Company's share capital),
- c. to make any charges to the share premium or premiums and, in particular, the expenses incurred to carry out the issues and to withdraw the required amounts from this sum to set up the legal reserve,
- d. in more general terms, to take all steps, conclude any agreements and carry out all the formalities in order to achieve that the securities are duly issued and admitted for trading and brokerage service, record the capital increase or increases and therefore amend the Company's By-laws.

This delegation shall be valid for a term of 26 months from the date this General Meeting is held.

Eighth resolution – Delegation of competence to the Board of Directors for the purpose of deciding on the issue of shares and securities granting a right to hold a stake in the share capital or granting the right to assignment of debt securities for private placement, eliminating the shareholders' preferential subscription right, according to article L. 411-2, II of the French Monetary and Financial Code

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the terms of Articles L.225-129 and following, L.225-135, L.225-136, L.228-91 to L. 228-97 of the French Code of Commerce:

- To delegate competence to the Board of Directors, with the right to sub-delegate, for the purpose of deciding, at its own discretion, in one or several stages, in the proportion and at the times it may deem fit, both in France and abroad and/or in the international market, in euros, in foreign currency or any monetary unit determined by reference to several currencies, by means of private placement of the Company's shares or securities, according to article L. 411-2, II of the French Monetary and Financial Code, issued at a price or free of charge (i) to assign a stake by any means, immediately and/or over a set period, in the Company's share capital or (ii) to grant the right for the assignment of debt securities, the subscription of which may be carried out either in cash or by offsetting debts, but this delegation may not grant a right to issue preferential shares and securities that grant a right, by any means, immediately and/or over a set period, to preferential shares.
- To delegate competence to the Board of Directors for the purpose of adopting a decision that the issue will be by private placement, according to article L. 411-2, II of the French Monetary and Financial Code, of securities granting a right to a stake in a company when the Company directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the share capital thereof or a company that directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the Company's share capital, being understood that these issues of securities must have been authorized by the company in which the rights will be exercised,
- To determine 20% of the share capital (as may exist on the date that the decision is adopted by the Board of Directors) for a 12-month period as the maximum nominal amount of the capital increases that may be agreed by virtue of the delegation hereby, being specified (i) that this ceiling will be increased, if need be, by the amount of the capital increases resulting from the adjustments that may be made, pursuant to the law and, if need be, the applicable contractual clauses, to protect the rights of the holders of securities or other rights granting a right to hold a stake in the Company's share capital, (ii) that it will be charged to the ceiling of the capital increase with elimination of the shareholders' preferential subscription right set forth and determined according to the terms and conditions in section three of resolution seven (applicable to issues carried out based on resolutions seven, eight, nine, eleven, thirteen and fourteen of this General Meeting) and (iii) it is charged to the overall ceiling amount according to resolution nineteen,

- To decide to eliminate the shareholders' preferential subscription right referred to in the resolution hereby,
- To take record of the fact that if the subscriptions of the whole issue are not covered, the Board of Directors may limit the amount of the transaction to the amount of the subscriptions received providing this reaches at least three quarters of the issue,
- To take record that this delegation fully lawfully implies, to the benefit of the holder of the securities issued granting a right to a stake in the Company, the shareholders must waive their preferential subscription rights to the shares such securities could entitle them to acquire,
- To decide that the issue price of the shares or securities to be issued within the scope of the resolution hereby will at least be equivalent to the minimum amount authorized by the law in force at the time of the issue,
- To decide (i) that the securities issued in this manner may consist of debt securities and, in particular, bonds or similar or related securities, or even allow the issues as interim securities and (ii) that they may be specifically issued in the form of subordinated securities or not, for a fixed term or not,
- To decide that the Board of Directors shall be delegated competence, with a right to sub-delegate, to enforce the resolution hereby and in particular:
 - a. to determine the dates and terms for any issue and the methods and features for the securities to be created, approve the prices, with or without a premium, and the terms and conditions for the issues, to determine the amount to be issued, decide on the date the securities to be issued benefit from dividend rights even retroactively, determine the way to release the ordinary shares or other securities issued and, if need be, the methods for the securities granting a right to free allocation of a stake in a company, the terms and conditions in which these securities will grant a stake in the Company's share capital and, if need be, stipulate the terms and conditions for their purchase on the stock market and their possible redemption and the possibility of suspending the rights being exercised related to the securities to be issued,
 - b. to decide, when the securities issued consist of or will be associated with debt securities, whether they are subordinated or not, determine their interest rate and the terms for paying the interest, their term, the fixed or variable reimbursement price, with or without premium, the systems for redemption and the terms and conditions in which these securities will grant a right to the shares of the Company (or a company when the Company directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the share capital thereof or a company that directly or indirectly owns or will own more than half the Company's share capital),
 - c. To make any charges to the share premium or premiums and, in particular, for the expenses incurred to carry out the issues, and to withdraw the required amounts from this sum to set up the legal reserve,
 - d. In more general terms, to take all steps, conclude any agreements and carry out all the formalities in order to achieve that the securities are duly issued and admitted for trading and brokerage service, record the capital increase or increases and therefore amend the Company's By-laws.

This delegation shall be valid for a term of 26 months from the date this General Meeting is held. The General Meeting duly records that this delegation does not have the same object as the previous resolution, being limited to capital increases with no preferential subscription right by an offer specified in article L. 411-2, II of the French Monetary and Financial Code.

Ninth resolution – Delegation of competence to the Board of Directors, in the case of an issue of shares and securities granting a right to hold a stake in the share capital, without a preferential subscription right, to freely determine the issue price up to the limit of 10% of the share capital

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the terms of Article L.225-136-1 of the French Code of Commerce:

- To delegate competence to the Board of Directors, with the right to sub-delegate, up to the limit of 10% of the share capital (as this exists on the date the decision is adopted by the Board of Directors) for a 12-month period, according to the terms and conditions for determining the price set forth in resolutions seven and eight and to freely determine the issue price, in the case of a public offer or by an offer defined in section II of article L.411-2 of the French Monetary and Financial Code, of shares and/or securities granting a stake by any means, immediately and/or over a set period, in the Company's share capital, which must not be lower than the average market price, weighted by the number of the shares, in the last three stock market sessions prior to the date when the issue price is determined, possibly deducting a maximum discount of 20%, providing the amounts to be received for each share are at least equivalent to their par value,
- To decide that the total nominal amount of the Company's share capital resulting from the issues made by virtue of the delegation hereby is charged to the overall ceiling according to resolution nineteen.

This delegation shall be valid for a term of 26 months from the date this General Meeting is held.

Tenth resolution – Delegation of competence to the Board of Directors for the purpose of increasing the number of securities to be issued in the case of a capital increase, with or without application of the shareholders' preferential subscription right, by applying resolutions six, seven, eight and nine

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the reports of the Board of Directors and the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the provisions in article L.225-135-1 of the French Commercial Code and within the limit of the positions and recommendations of the Financial Market Authorities:

- To delegate competence to the Board of Directors, with the right to sub-delegate, for the purpose of deciding, in the case of a surplus demand, to increase the number of shares or securities to be issued in the case of a capital increase of the Company, with no preferential subscription right, with the terms and limits stated in the regulations applicable on the date of the issue (or, on such date, within thirty days after the subscription has been closed and up to a limit of 15% of the initial issue) and at the same price as the one determined for the initial issue, and
- To decide that the nominal amount of the capital increases of the Company resulting from the issues made by virtue of this delegation shall be charged to the ceiling set forth in the resolution applicable to the one in which the issue is decided and to the amount of the overall ceiling according to resolution nineteen,

This delegation shall be valid for a term of 26 months from the date this General Meeting is held.

Eleventh resolution – Delegation of competence to the Board of Directors for the purpose of authorizing the issue of securities by one or more subsidiaries of the Company granting a right to hold a stake in the company's share capital and therefore the company's shares

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the terms of Articles L.225-129 and following and L. 228-91 to L.228-97 of the French Code of Commerce:

- To delegate competence to the Board of Directors, with the right to sub-delegate, for the purpose of deciding, at its sole discretion, (i) pursuant to article L.228-93 of the French Commercial Code, to authorize the possible issue, in one or several stages, in the proportion and at the times it may deem fit, both in

France and abroad and/or in the international market, by one or several companies in which the Company directly or indirectly holds more than half the share capital (the "Subsidiary" or "Subsidiaries"), of any securities granting the right to the Company's shares existing or to be issued, by any means, immediately or over a set period, (the "Securities of the Subsidiaries") and (ii) therefore decide on the issue, both in France and abroad, in one or several stages, in euros, in foreign currency or any monetary unit determined by reference to several currencies, with or without premiums, of new shares of the Company, that the Securities of the Subsidiaries could be entitled to,

- To take record that this decision fully lawfully implies, to the benefit of the holders of the Securities of the Subsidiaries, the shareholders waiving their preferential subscription rights to the Company's shares that such securities could entitle them to acquire,
- To take record that the Company's shareholders are not granted a preferential subscription right for the Securities of the Subsidiaries,
- To decide that the maximum nominal amount of the capital increases that may be agreed immediately and/or over a set period by virtue of the delegation hereby may not exceed €25 million or its counter-value in any other authorized currency, being specified that this ceiling will be increased, if need be, by the amount of the capital increases resulting from the adjustments that may be made, pursuant to the law and, if need be, the applicable contractual clauses, to protect the rights of the holders of securities of other rights granting a right to a stake in the company's share capital, and (ii) is charged to the ceiling of the capital increases eliminating the shareholders' preferential subscription right stated and determined in the terms and conditions in section three of resolution seven (applicable to issues based on resolutions seven, eight, nine, eleven, thirteen and fourteen of this General Meeting) and (iii) is charged to the overall ceiling as this is determined in the terms and conditions specified in resolution nineteen
- To decide that, in the case of the Board of Directors exercising this authority, the amount paid at the time of the issue or that could later be paid to the Company must be, for each ordinary share issued due to the issue of the Securities of the Subsidiaries, at least equivalent to the average weighted market value of the Company's ordinary shares in the three stock market sessions prior to the issue price being determined for the Securities of the Subsidiaries, possibly deducting a maximum discount of 5% after, if need be, adjusting such average taking into account the difference between the dates of the dividend rights,
- To decide that the Board of Directors shall be delegated competence, with the right to sub-delegate, to enforce the resolution hereby, according to the boards of directors or other administrative or management bodies of the issuing subsidiaries, pursuant to applicable French laws and regulations, and, if need be, foreign laws and regulations, and, in particular:
 - a. to determine the methods for any issue (including the methods for releasing the Company's shares), approve the prices, with or without premium, determine the number to be issued, determine the date the securities to be issued benefit from dividend rights even retroactively, determine the terms and conditions in which the Company will, if need be, authorize it to buy or swap the securities issued or to be issued, whether with the aim of redeeming them or not on the stock market, at any time or during certain periods, bearing in mind the legal obligations,
 - b. to charge the expenses incurred for the capital increase to the amount of the possible premiums related thereto and withdraw the required amounts from this sum to set up the legal reserve for one tenth of the new share capital after each increase,
 - c. In more general terms, to carry out all the actions that may be useful or necessary, conclude any agreements and carry out all the procedures and formalities for the purpose of recording that one or more increases of capital have been carried out, therefore amend the Company's Bylaws and carry out all the formalities required for the securities issued to be admitted for trading.

This delegation shall be valid for a term of 26 months from the date this General Meeting is held.

Twelfth resolution – Delegation of competence to the Board of Directors to decide on a capital increase by providing reserves, profits, premiums or other sums eligible for capitalization.

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for ordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and pursuant to the terms of Articles L.225-129 and following and in particular Article L. 225-130 of the French Code of Commerce:

- confers on the Board of Directors, with the option of subdelegation, power to decide on a capital increase, via its decisions alone, on one or more occasions, in the proportions and whenever it determines, by capitalization of reserves, profits, premiums or other sums eligible for capitalization, subject to an increase in the nominal value of the existing shares or a free allotment of shares or a combination of these two practices,
- decides that the maximum nominal amount of the capital increases liable to arise from all of the issues performed under this resolution will be equal to the total amount of the sums that may be incorporated into the capital in accordance with the current legislation, it having been specified that (i) this amount will be increased if required by the amount of the capital increases resulting from the adjustments liable to be made, in accordance with the law and, where necessary, the applicable contractual provisions, to preserve the rights of the holders of stocks and shares or other rights granting access to the Company's capital, and (ii) it will be charged to the overall ceiling covered by resolution nineteen,
- decides that the Board of Directors will have all powers, with the option of subdelegation, to implement this resolution and in particular, to:
 - a. set the amount and nature of the sums to be incorporated into the capital, to set the number of new share issues and/or the amount by which the nominal value of the existing shares will be increased, decide on the date, even if retroactive, from which the new shares will confer the right to a dividend and/or that on which the increased nominal value of the existing shares will take effect,
 - b. in the event of the allotment of free shares, decide that the rights to fractional shares will not be negotiable and that the corresponding shares will be sold with the sums arising from the sale being allocated to the right holders within the deadline provided for in the applicable legislation,
 - c. charge the amount of the costs pertaining to the corresponding capital increase to one or more reserve funds and if deemed appropriate, deduct the sums required to bring the legal reserve up to one tenth of the new capital following each issue,
 - d. and, more generally, take all measures, conclude all agreements and carry out every formality required to successfully complete each capital increase and, where necessary for admission to trading and to the financial service of the newly issued shares, record each capital increase and make the alterations correlative to the Company Bylaws.

This delegation shall be valid for a period of 26 months from this Meeting.

Thirteenth resolution – Delegation of competence to the Board of Directors to decide on an issue of shares and securities granting access to the capital or granting entitlement to the allotment of debt instruments as part of a public exchange offer issued by the Company.

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the terms of Articles L.225-129 and following and L. 225-148 and L. 228-92 of the French Code of Commerce:

- delegates to the Board of Directors, with the option of subdelegation, the authority to decide, via its own decisions, on the issue of Company shares or securities granting access, by any means, immediately or within a certain period of time, to the Company capital or granting entitlement to the allotment of debt instruments, in consideration for the securities contributed to a public offer comprising a principal or alternative exchange element issued by the Company, in France or abroad, in accordance with the local

- rules, on the securities of another company admitted to trade on one of the regulated markets covered by article L.225-148 of the Commercial Code, and decide to withdraw the shareholders' preferential subscription right to these shares and/or securities to be issued,
- formally records that this delegation implies the waiver by the shareholders of their preferential right to the shares to which these securities may grant entitlement,
 - decides that the total nominal value of the immediate or future capital increases liable to be made pursuant to the delegation conferred on the Board of Directors may be no greater than €100 million or its exchange value in all other authorized currencies, it being specified that (i) this ceiling will be increased if required by the amount of the capital increases resulting from adjustments liable to be made, in accordance with the law and, where necessary, the applicable contractual provisions, to preserve the rights of the holders of stocks and shares or other rights granting access to the capital, (ii) it shall be charged to the capital increase ceiling withdrawing the shareholders' allotment right provided for and laid down in accordance with item three of resolution seven (applicable to issues based on resolutions seven, eight, nine, eleven, thirteen and fourteen of this Meeting) and (iii) it be charged to the amount of the overall ceiling covered by resolution nineteen,
 - decides that the issue price of the shares or securities to be issued under this resolution will be at least equal to the minimum authorized by the legislation in force,
 - decides that the Board of Directors will have every authority, with the option of subdelegation, to implement this resolution and in particular to:
 - a. set the exchange rate and, where required, the amount of the cash element to be paid,
 - b. record the number of securities contributed to the exchange,
 - c. determine the dates, the issuance terms and conditions, in particular, the price and date on which there will be a right to a dividend, the new ordinary shares and/or, where required, the securities granting access to the Company capital immediately and/or within a certain period of time,
 - d. if deemed appropriate, deduct all of the costs pertaining to the authorized operation from the goodwill and deduct therefrom the sums required for allocation to the legal reserve,
 - e. and, more generally, take every measure, conclude all agreements and carry out all the necessary formalities to successfully complete the issue and for admission to trade and the financial service of the issued securities, record the capital increase or increases and similarly, alter the Company's Bylaws.

This delegation shall be valid for a period of 26 months from this Meeting.

Fourteenth resolution – Delegation of powers to the Board of Directors to issue shares and/or securities granting access to the Company's capital in payment for the contributions in kind within the limit of 10% of the capital.

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the terms of Articles L.255-147 paragraph 6 of the French Code of Commerce:

- delegates to the Board of Directors powers to issue shares, equity securities, stocks or securities granting access, by any means, immediately or within a certain period, to the Company's capital, in payment for the contributions in kind made to the Company and composed of equity securities or securities granting access to the capital when the provisions of article L.225-148 of the Commercial Code do not apply,
- sets the maximum nominal value of the capital increase liable to result from the issues authorized by this resolution at 10% of the share capital on the date of the Board of Directors' decision, it being specified that (i) this amount shall be deducted from the capital increase ceiling withdrawing the shareholders' preferential right provided for and laid down in accordance with item three of resolution seven (applicable to issues made on the basis of resolutions seven, eight, nine, thirteen and fourteen of this Meeting) and (ii) it be deducted from the amount of the global ceiling covered by resolution nineteen,

- decides to withdraw, to the benefit of the equity shareholders or security holders, the objects of the contributions in kind, the shareholders' preferential right to the shares and/or securities thus issued and formally records that this delegation implies the waiver by the shareholders of their preferential right to the shares to which the securities that would be issued in conformity with this delegation may grant entitlement,
- decides that the price of the shares or securities to be issued under this resolution will be at least equal to the minimum authorized by the current legislation,
- decides that the Board of Directors will have every authority, with the option of subdelegation, to implement this resolution and in particular, to:
 - a. decide on the Auditors' report on the contributions mentioned in article L.225-147 of the Commercial Code on the appraisal of the contributions,
 - b. decide on the date on which the right to a dividend will be conferred, even if retroactive, by the new shares issued under this authorization,
 - c. charge all costs pertaining to the capital increase to the goodwill, if required, and deduct therefrom, if deemed appropriate, the sums required for allocation to the legal reserve up to one tenth of the new capital following each issue,
 - d. and, more generally, take every measure, conclude all agreements and carry out all formalities to achieve the successful completion of the issue and the admission to trade and the financial service of the issued securities, record the increase or increases in capital and, similarly, alter the Company's Bylaws.

This delegation of powers shall be valid for a period of 26 months from this Meeting.

Fifteenth resolution – Authorization to grant share subscription and/or purchase options in favor of staff members and/or Company or Group company officers

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors:

- in accordance with articles L. 225-177 and following of the Commercial Code, authorizes the Board of Directors to grant new Company share subscription options and/or existing Company share purchase options on one or more occasions, for salaried workers as well as the eligible officers or some of them, from the Company or groups or associated companies in accordance with article L.225-180 of the Commercial Code,
- decides that the total number of options thus made pursuant to this resolution may represent no more than 4% of the Company's share capital as recorded on the day of their allocation by the Board of Directors, it being specified that (i) the total nominal amount of the capital increases liable to be made in accordance with this resolution will be increased, if required, by the amount of the capital increases resulting from the adjustments liable to be made in accordance with the law and, where necessary, the applicable contractual provisions, to preserve the security holders' rights granting access to the capital, (ii) this ceiling shall be equally different from and independent of the ceiling provided for and laid down in accordance with section three of resolution seven, (iii) it is consistent with the ceilings set in resolutions sixteen and seventeen below, (iv) and it will be charged to the global ceiling covered by resolution nineteen,
- decides that the Board may impose one or more performance conditions to be determined by the Board of Directors on granting all or part of the options,
- decides that the number of options granted to the managing officers of the Company may represent no more than 10% of the total of the allocations made on the basis of this authorization or the authorization granted by resolution twenty-one of the General Meeting of May 30, 2008,

- decides that the Board of Directors will decide on the day on which it will grant the options, the share subscription or purchase price within the limits of and in accordance with the legislation,
- decides that the options may be exercised within a period of 10 years from the day on which they were granted,
- decides that this authorization shall imply the express waiver by the shareholders of their preferential right to the shares that will be issued according to the options exercised to the benefit of the beneficiaries of the subscription option,
- decides that the Board of Directors, with the option of subdelegation, will have every authority to implement this authorization in accordance with the law, in particular:
 - a. to determine the nature of the options granted, set the price and terms of conditions under which the options will be granted, decide on the list of beneficiaries and the number of options allocated to each of them,
 - b. to make the adjustments required to protect the interests of the beneficiaries under the assumptions and conditions provided for by the current legislation and, particularly, to decide on the conditions under which the price and the number of shares to be subscribed to or acquired will be adjusted,
 - c. to lay down the terms and conditions of the options, and particularly: (i) the term of validity of the options, (ii) the date or dates or periods in which to exercise the options, (iii) the date on which dividends will become payable, even retroactively, on the new shares resulting from the exercise of the subscription options,
 - d. provide for the authority to temporarily suspend the exercise of the options during the maximum period provided for by the applicable legislative provisions in the event of financial operations taking place involving the exercise of a right attached to the shares,
 - e. where required, to limit, suspend, restrict or prohibit the exercise of the options or to transfer or to issue to the bearer the shares obtained from exercising the options during certain periods or from some events, and its decision may apply to all or part of the options or shares or all or part of the beneficiaries,
 - f. via its decision alone and if deemed appropriate, deduct the capital increase costs from the amount of the premiums pertaining to these increases and deduct from this amount the sums required for allocation to the legal reserve up to one tenth of the new capital following each increase,
 - g. to record the capital increases arising from the exercise of the options and alter the articles, and
 - h. more generally, to conclude all agreements, draw up all documents, carry out all formalities and generally do all that is required to implement this authorization.

In accordance with the law, the Board of Directors will inform the shareholders of the operations carried out under this operation each year at the general meeting.

This authorization shall be valid for a period of 38 months from this Meeting and shall rescind and replace that previously granted by resolution twenty-one of the General Meeting of May 30, 2008.

Sixteenth resolution – Authorization to the Board of Directors to proceed with the grant of free shares to the employees and/or the corporate officers of the Company and/or companies in its group

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the terms of Articles L.225-197-1 and following of the French Code of Commerce:

- authorizes the Board of Directors, at its discretion, to proceed one or more times with free grants of outstanding shares and/or shares to be issued to beneficiaries to be determined by it among the members and/or some members of the salaried workforce and/or eligible corporate officers of the Company who meet the conditions set by law and/or among companies or groups affiliated with it pursuant to Article L. 225-197-2 of the Code of Commerce,

- resolves that the total number of free shares granted under this resolution may not represent more than four percent of the Company's share capital as certified on the date granted by the Board of Directors, provided that (i) the total nominal amount of any capital increases likely to be completed pursuant to this resolution are increased by the amount of any capital increases resulting from adjustments likely to be made, as required by law and any applicable stipulations under the contract, in order to preserve the rights of the beneficiaries of free shares, (ii) that this ceiling is also separate and autonomous from the ceiling originally stipulated and that it is calculated under the conditions set under section three of resolution seven, (iii) that it is consistent with the ceilings set in resolutions fifteen and seventeen, and (iv) that it is not charged to the overall ceiling referred to in resolution nineteen,
- resolves that the grant of free shares to their beneficiaries shall be final after an acquisition period of no less than two years,
- resolves that those shares granted free of charge shall in all cases entail a holding period of at least two years, unless, however, the minimum holding period is reduced or eliminated by the Board of Directors for shares with an acquisition period set at more than two years,
- resolves that the final grant of shares shall be made immediately before the end of the acquisition period in the event the beneficiary corresponding to the second or third class of shares pursuant to Article L.341-4 of the Social Security Code proves ineligible, or in the event of the death of the beneficiary before the end of the holding period, as the shares then become transferable immediately,
- resolves that with regard to any outstanding shares that can be granted under this resolution, they must be acquired by the Company, either under Article L.225-208 of the Code of Commerce or, as the case may be, under the share buyback program authorized by resolution five submitted to this Meeting or any other stock purchase plan applicable subsequently,
- acknowledges that, with regard to any shares to be issued, this delegation (i) shall require, after the acquisition period, a capital increase by capitalization of reserves, income or issue premiums to the beneficiaries of the said shares, and a correlative waiver by the shareholders in favor of the beneficiaries of any grants to that portion of the reserves, income and premiums thus capitalized, and (ii) shall require automatically the grant of free shares to the beneficiaries and a waiver by the shareholders of their preferential subscription right,
- acknowledges the fact that the corresponding capital increase shall be completed definitively solely because of the final grant of shares to the beneficiaries,
- resolves that the Board of Directors, with the option of sub-delegation, shall have full authority to implement this resolution, particularly for purposes of the following:
 - a. preparing the lists of beneficiaries, setting the dates and terms for granting the shares, particularly the period after which such grants are final, and, as the case may be, the holding period required for each beneficiary as well as the number of shares granted to each of them,
 - b. determining the interest bearing date, even retroactive, of the new shares issued under this authorization,
 - c. if deemed appropriate, determining conditions affecting the final grant of free shares, particularly any conditions of presence and/or performance,
 - d. as the case may be, providing for the option of temporarily suspending the rights to be granted,
 - e. determining whether or not the shares granted free of charge are outstanding shares or shares to be issued, and, in the case of new share issues, to increase the capital by capitalizing reserves, profits or premiums, determining the nature and the amount of the reserves to be capitalized for payment in full of the said shares, recognizing any capital increases, amending the articles of incorporation accordingly and more generally seeing to it that transactions are conducted successfully,

- f. as the case may be, during the acquisition period, providing for the option of adjusting the number of free shares granted based on any capital transactions by the Company in such a way as to preserve the rights of the beneficiaries, and making the said adjustments, provided that the shares granted under such adjustments are considered granted on the same day as the shares initially granted,
- g. and more generally recognizing the final grant of shares, concluding any and all agreements, preparing any and all documents, performing any and all formalities and in general doing everything useful or necessary to implement this authorization.

This authorization is valid for a period of 38 months from this Meeting.

Seventeenth resolution – Delegation of authority to the Board of Directors to increase the share capital in favor of the employees of the group - Article L.225-129-6 of the Code of Commerce

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the terms of Articles L.3332-18 and following of the French Labor Code and following and L.225-129-2, L.225-129-6 and L.225-138-1 of the French Code of Commerce:

- delegates its authority to the Board of Directors to increase the share capital one or more times, solely at its discretion, by issuing shares in the Company reserved for employees and former employees in the Company and any affiliated companies or economic interest groups as defined in Article L.225-180 of the Code of Commerce who are members of a Company Savings Plan [PEE] to be set up pursuant to Article L.3332-18 of the Labor Code,
- resolves that the capital increase under this resolution may not exceed four percent of the share capital on the date of the decision by the Board of Directors, provided (i) that this amount is consistent with the ceilings set in resolutions fifteen and sixteen above, and (ii) that it is charged to the overall ceiling described in resolution nineteen,
- resolves to eliminate the shareholders' preferential subscription right in favor of the members of a Company Savings Plan applied to the shares to be issued under this resolution,
- resolves that the Board of Directors shall set the subscription price of the shares in accordance with Article L.3332-19 of the Labor Code given that the maximum discount in relation to the average share price on Euronext Paris during the twenty trading sessions preceding the decision by the Board of Directors setting the date for opening subscriptions cannot exceed 20%, provided (i) that the Board of Directors is expressly authorized to reduce or eliminate this discount if deemed appropriate, including for the purpose of taking into account international accounting provisions or legal, accounting, tax or social systems applicable locally, and (ii) that the Board of Directors will also be able to decide to grant free shares to the subscribers to new shares as a substitute for the discount and/or as the employer's contribution.
- resolves that the Board of Directors, with the option of sub-delegation, shall have full powers to implement this resolution, and in particular to:
 - a. determine the companies or groups whose employees will be able to subscribe to the new shares,
 - b. set the conditions and terms for the issues to be completed under this authorization, particularly the interest bearing date and the terms for payment in full and the subscription price of the new shares, and to decide on the subscription opening and closing dates,
 - c. solely at its discretion and if deemed appropriate, to charge the costs of the capital increases to the amount of the premiums associated with such increases, and to withhold from that amount the sums necessary to raise to the legal reserve to one tenth of the new equity capital after each increase,
 - d. certify the completion of the capital increases resulting from this resolution, to amend the bylaws accordingly, to carry out any and all formalities and in general to do everything useful or necessary to implement this authorization.

This delegation is valid for a period of 26 months from this Meeting.

Eighteenth resolution – Authorization given to the Board of Directors to reduce the capital through cancellation of shares

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the terms of articles L.225-209 and following of the French Code of Commerce:

- authorizes the Board of Directors to cancel, all at once or at several times, up to 10% of the share capital as of the date of the Board of Directors' decision, per period of 24 months, all or portion of the shares acquired or that would be acquired by the Company itself in accordance with the authorization of the Ordinary General Meeting, and to correspondingly reduce the share capital,
- resolves that the Board of Directors will have all powers, with right to sub-delegate, to implement this resolution and notably for:
 - a. completing one or several share cancellations and capital reductions as result of this delegation, setting the terms and noting its completion,
 - b. imputing the difference between the book value of the canceled shares and their nominal value on all the items of available reserves and bonuses, and
 - c. undertaking the corresponding amendment of the articles of incorporation, carrying out all the formalities and as a general rule doing everything that is deemed necessary.

This authorization terminates immediately and replaces that which was granted by the eighth resolution of the General Meeting of June 1st, 2010 and is valid for a period of 18 months from the date of this General Meeting.

Nineteenth resolution – Overall ceiling for capital increases

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors and the special report from the Statutory Auditors, and pursuant to the terms of Articles L. 129-2 of the French Code of Commerce:

- resolves to set the immediate overall ceiling for capital increases that could result from all the issues of shares and/or various securities under the delegations of authority granted to the Board of Directors under resolutions six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen and seventeen resolutions at an overall nominal amount of €300 million plus the amount of any capital increases resulting from adjustments liable to be made in accordance with the law and, as the case may be, with any applicable stipulations in the contract, in order to preserve the rights of the holders of securities or other rights giving access eventually to the Company's capital,
- provided that up to the limit of this ceiling:
 - a. issues retaining the preferential subscription right covered by resolution six may not result in a capital increase in a nominal amount above €100 million,
 - b. issues eliminating the preferential subscription right covered by resolution seven, after the increase in the number of shares or securities issued under resolution ten is taken into account, may not result in a capital increase in a nominal amount above €100 million,
 - c. issues eliminating the preferential subscription right by private placement covered by resolution eight, after the increase in the number of shares or securities issued under resolution ten is taken into account, may not exceed 20% of the share capital (as it existed on the day of the decision by the Board of Directors) per 12-month period.,
 - d. issues eliminating the preferential subscription rights resulting from the issue by subsidiaries of the Company of securities giving access to the capital of the Company, which are covered by resolution eleven, may not result in a capital increase in a nominal amount above €25 million,

- e. the maximum nominal amount of any capital increases liable to be completed under resolution twelve shall be equal to the overall amount of the sums that can be capitalized in accordance with the regulations in effect,
 - f. capital increases in cases of public exchange offers, which are covered in resolution thirteen, may not result in increasing the capital in an amount above €100 million,
 - g. capital increases completed in order to pay for in-kind contributions, which are covered in resolution fourteen, may not exceed 10% of the share capital (as it existed on the day of the decision by the Board of Directors),
 - h. all the capital increases with elimination of the preferential subscription right based on resolutions seven, eight, nine, eleven, thirteen and fourteen, after the increase in the number of shares or securities issued under resolution ten is taken into account, may not result in increasing the capital in an amount above €100 million,
 - i. issues of new shares for stock subscription or stock purchase options, which are covered in resolution fifteen, may not result in increasing the capital in an amount above four percent of the Company's capital as certified on the day they are granted by the Board of Directors; this amount must be consistent with the amount set in resolutions sixteen and seventeen,
 - j. issues of new shares for grants of free shares, which are covered by resolution sixteen, may not result in increasing the capital in an amount above four percent of the Company's capital as certified on the day they are granted by the Board of Directors; this amount must be consistent with the amount set in the resolutions fifteen and seventeen,
 - k. issues of shares to the group's employees, which are covered by resolution seventeen, may not exceed four percent of the share capital on the date of the decision by the Board of Directors; this amount must be consistent with the amount set in resolutions the fifteen and sixteen;
- with the understanding that all these ceilings are set without taking into account the consequences on the amount of capital of any adjustments liable to be made in accordance with the law and with any applicable contractual stipulations, to preserve the rights of the holders of securities or other rights giving eventual access to the Company's capital.

Twentieth resolution – Amendment of the Company's Articles of Incorporation to put in coherence the address of the registered head office with the mailing address of the Company

The General Meeting, held in accordance with the conditions of quorum and majority required for extraordinary general meetings, after having taken knowledge of the report of the Board of Directors, resolves to put in coherence the address of the registered head office with the mailing address of the Company and as a result modifies the first clause of Article 4 of the Company's Articles of Incorporation as follows:

Former wording

«The registered office is situated at 75, rue Denis Papin – 13100 Aix-en-Provence. »

Cedex 9, Fax +33(0)1.49.08.05.82 or 83, ct-assemblies@caceis.com. The request must be received by CACEIS Corporate Trust at least six days before the Meeting date, or June 10, 2011 at the latest.

Votes by mail or by proxy sent by mail can be taken into account only if the forms duly filled out and signed accompanied by the participation certificate reach CACEIS Corporate Trust, Centralized General Meeting Department, 14, rue Rouget de Lisle, 92862 Issy les Moulineaux Cedex 9, at least three days before the date of the Meeting, or June 14, 2011, at the latest.

Pursuant to Article R.225-79 of the Code of Commerce, notice to the Company of the appointment or removal of any proxy may be done electronically and forwarded to the address ct-mandataires-assemblies-theolia@caceis.com, at least three days before the Meeting date, or June 14, 2011, at the latest, in accordance with the following procedures:

- for pure registered shareholders: by indicating their last name, first name and address and registration ID (information available in the top left-hand part of your account statement) as well as the last name, first name of the officer appointed or removed. If the proxy designated is a holder of bearer shares, they must attach their participation certificate issued by their financial intermediary, and
- for the holders of bearer shares or administrated registered shares, by indicating their last name, first name, and address as well as the last name and first name of the proxy being appointed or removed. This request must be accompanied by the participation certificate issued by the authorized financial intermediary. The proxy given by a shareholder must be signed by him or her using an electronic signature procedure, in accordance with the provisions of Article R.225-79.

The e-mail address ct-mandataires-assemblies-theolia@caceis.com can process only applications to appoint or remove a proxy; no other requests can be processed at this address.

Shareholders who have sent in their single vote by mail or by proxy form or who have applied for an admission card may no longer choose another method of participation. However, they may assign all or part of their shares. No notification shall be given by the authorized intermediary or taken into consideration by the Company of any sale or other operation conducted after the third day preceding the Meeting, or June 14, 2011, at midnight Paris time, regardless of the method used, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary.

If a form is returned by a registered intermediary, then the Company reserves the right to question the said intermediary to find out the identity of the voters.

For this General Meeting, there are no arrangements for voting by video conferencing or by any telecommunications methods. Therefore, no site referred to in Article R.225-61 of the Commercial Code will be equipped for that purpose

B. Documents provided for shareholders.

The documents that must be provided to shareholders and presented during the Meeting will be available at the Company's head office at 75 rue Denis Papin – BP 80199 - 13795 Aix-en-Provence Cedex 3, under the conditions provided by law and by the applicable regulations.

The documents referred to in Article R.225-73-1 of the Code of Commerce will be published on the Company's web site, www.theolia.com/Finance, Heading, "General Meetings" no later than the twenty-first day preceding the date of the Meeting, or May 27, 2011, under the legal and regulatory conditions.

C. Requests to place items or draft resolutions on the agenda– written questions:

1. Request to place items or draft resolutions on the agenda: One or more shareholders or a shareholders' association representing at least that portion of the capital called for by law and under the regulations may request that items or draft resolutions be placed on the agenda under the conditions stipulated by Articles L.225-105 and R.225-71 to R.225-73 of the Code of Commerce.

Requests to place items or draft resolutions on the agenda presented by the shareholders must be sent to the head office by registered letter with return receipt and addressed to the Chairman of the Board of Directors at the Company's head office (75 rue Denis Papin – BP 80199 - 13795 Aix-en-Provence Cedex 3) or by e-mail to assemblee-generale@theolia.com after this notice is published and must reach the Company no later than twenty-five calendar days before the General Meeting, or no later than May 23, 2011.

There must be grounds for any request to place an item on the agenda. Requests to place draft resolutions on the agenda must be accompanied by the text of the draft resolution, which may be accompanied by a brief outline of its purpose.

Requests must be accompanied by proof of registration in an account either in the registered share accounts held by the Company or in the bearer share accounts held by an authorized intermediary that provides proof of ownership or representation by the applicant of that portion of the capital required under Article R.225-71 of the Code of Commerce. Furthermore, a review by the Meeting of the item or draft resolution filed also requires the applicant to provide another certificate proving registration of the shares in the same accounts as of the third business day preceding the Meeting, or June 14, 2011, at midnight Paris time.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors acknowledges receipt of requests for placing items or draft resolutions on the agenda either by registered letter or by e-mail at the address indicated by the shareholder within five days of receipt.

Draft resolutions presented as well as a list of any items added to the agenda will be published right away on the Company's web site, www.theolia.com/Finance, Heading "General Meetings."

2. Written questions: Pursuant to Article R.225-84 of the Code of Commerce, any shareholder wishing to ask written questions must, no later than the fourth business day preceding the date of the Meeting, or June 10, 2011, send his or her questions to the Company's head office to the Chairman of the Board of Directors by registered letter with return receipt or by e-mail to assemblee-generale@theolia.com.

To be taken into account, it is mandatory for such questions to be accompanied by proof of registration in a share account either in the registered share accounts kept by the Company or in the bearer share accounts kept by an authorized intermediary.

Replies to the written questions will be published directly on the Company's web site, www.theolia.com/Finance, Heading "General Meetings."
